

Gerald Gradwohl Group - Episode 6 Label: gtone211

Working at the highest international level of quality has always been a fundamental characteristic of the Gerald Gradwohl Group.

He collaborated with Bob Berg, Gary Willis, Kirk Covington, Adam Nitti amongst others.

Rooted in the quartet's own unique approach to instrumental fusion, their sixth album "Episode 6" is a celebration of improvisation set within an exciting and colorful, sonic landscape of imposing compositions.

As we have come to know from guitarist and composer Gerald Gradwohl, he continues to work with musicians who, aside from their extraordinary instrumental skills, also bring maturity and creative drive into both concert and recording situations. "Episode 6" is no exception.

Gradwohl's sophisticated and stylistically diverse instrumental compositions conceptualize exciting musical interactions, and his approach not only continues to keep live recordings fresh and challenging but also fosters the intuition and spontaneity of the musicians, all consolidating the band's highly dynamic sound. Gerald Gradwohl (g), Thomas Kugi (sax), Jojo Lackner (b) und Harald Tanschek (dr) have once again proved themselves to be an exceptional ensemble, unifying dynamic and intimate musicality with artistic intuition and emotional depth.
